

RIVER ABOVE ASIA OCEANIA ECCLESIAL NETWORK (RAOEN)

For peoples, oceans, and forests

RAOEN is looking for THREE SUBREGIONAL COORDINATORS (Oceania, South Asia, Southeast Asia)

Each Subregional Coordinator is responsible for the effective implementation and coordination of ongoing and emerging work of the Biome-Based Synodality (BBS) project of the River Above Asia and Oceania Ecclesial Network \(RAOEN\) in each specific region (Oceania, South Asia, Southeast Asia). The RAOEN-BBS project seeks to sustain dialogue and collaborative engagements among the Church, the Indigenous, and local communities, youth, and other faith-based organizations within and beyond Asia and Oceania, working towards an understanding of what is possible in the care for forests, oceans, and peoples.

Qualifications:

- Mission-driven and community-oriented
- At least 3 to 5 years of development work or community engagement/education
- A graduate degree or its equivalent is an advantage
- Excellent communication skills
- Familiar with various communication media platforms and technology
- Strong interpersonal skills
- Finds joy in engaging with young people
- Physically and mentally fit for travel and fieldwork
- Has spiritual grounding on faith or other personal belief
- Adopts (or willing to improve towards) a healthy and active lifestyle

The work is remote with travel to visit communities, meet with Church leaders and local stakeholders, and join regional meetings.
